Play Facilities for Blind Developed at Alondra Park

Los Angeles County's first recreation program for blind children got under way this week on a recently developed section of Alondra Park.

Dedication ceremonies were held for the new 10-acre northeast section of the park at 3612 West Manhattan Beach Blvd., Lawndale, Saturday with Supervisor Kenneth Hahn as master of ceremonies.

Following the dedication, blind youngsters participated in golf and archery practice under the direction of Bob Anderson, 56, a member of the Hawthorne Lions Club who was blinded in the boxing ring in 1931.

WORKING WITH Anderson in the program are Marlene Dykeman and Harold Swab of the County Park and Recreation Department.

Supervisor Hahn cited the program as a "positive step toward insuring that our County parks serve the needs of all the public."

He praised Anderson and the blind youngsters for their courage and initiative in spite of handicaps.

The dedication program opened with the invocation by the Rev. H. Earl Kuester of Calvary Baptist Church.

LEADING THE Flag Salute was Dorothy Groat, 12, representing Girl Scout Troop 772 of Torrance. Miss Groat resides at 18822 Thornberg Ave.

Several Girl Scout Troops of Torrance initiated the new section of the park the night before it was dedicated with a camp-out.

Speakers included Mayor Pro-Tem Ernest Eeles of Lawndale, Councilman Harvey Chapman of Gardena, Jack Anderson of the Torrance Lions Club, August Riess of the Lawndale Planning Commission, Jerold Drake, president of the Centinela Valley Chapter of the California Council of the Blind, and Daniel Furman, County Recreation superintendent.

BLIND CHILDREN participating in the ceremony included Jan Jacobi, 10, Hawthorne; Terry Miller, 11, Hawthorne; twins Daron and Darol Torrance, 11, of 2122 W. 183rd St.; Clyde Berry, 12, Hawthorne; Loreta Betraun, 9, Inglewood; Helen Choldera, 7, Lawndale; Janice Aurell, 11, of 4635 Narrot St., and Kathy Marshall, 10, and Gary Gill, 12, of the Torrance area.

Club Schedules Trading Session

A general trading session will be included in the Monday meeting of the Torrance Stamp Club at the Scott Park Community Building, 23410 Catskill Ave., Wilmington, at 7:30 p.m. Further information is available at TE 4-6718.
